

March inflation rises ...

The biggest impact came from alcoholic beverages, cigarettes and narcotic sub-index, which rose by almost 30 percent in prices followed by the increase of duties on such products by the budget announced in March.

Meanwhile, the transport sub-sector also rose followed by back-to-back price increases in petrol and diesel during February and March.